

March 16, 2012

Doug Froseth got a hole-in-one during his first round of the year. Doug hit a hybrid on the sixth hole. Kris Kotyk played with Doug and tells the tale: I remember the sun was in our eyes a bit, but we saw the ball fade towards the hole, land on the green and roll. We heard the ball hit the flag and it disappeared. We weren't positive it was in until we got to the hole and found the ball.

Later in the evening I got this nice pic of Doug. He not only bought a lot of adult beverages for everyone, it looks like he had a few himself.

Congratulations Doug!

